

 3 Bedrooms |  1 Receptions |  2 Bathrooms |  EPC Current D

Three Bedroom Terraced House To Rent – Huge Reception Room – Modern Kitchen – Two Bathrooms – Plenty of Storage – Private Rear Garden – Private Garage – Great Ealing Location.

This three bedroom terraced house has great potential for professional sharers. The trendy period features, complete with an attractive red garage door, and space for plants in the front, gives this property an excellent aesthetic. The large reception space, together with the private rear garden, would be a fantastic location for social gatherings, such as barbecues. The kitchen has been recently updated, is equipped with modern appliances and is built to accommodate for several guests. The bedrooms are big enough to comfortably fit double beds, and have large wardrobes, which double up as a full-length mirror. A private garage, wooden flooring, and a fantastic Ealing location, compliments this splendid property. Available Now.

Alders Close is in a marvellous location within South Ealing. The Piccadilly line from South Ealing Station is just around the corner, and, coupled with an extensive bus network, this provides the property with convenient transport links in and around London. The green spaces of South Ealing Road Park and Lammas Park are within a mile of the property, as are a range of amenities, both from around South Ealing and Ealing Broadway itself.
